

This is Our Lady Catholic Primary School Publication Scheme on information available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

The governing body is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

1. Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is available in paper form.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information.

This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

2. Aims and Objectives

The aim and purpose of Our Lady School is to provide a Catholic education for our children and develop sound Christian principles governed by the teaching of the Gospels, which are at the heart of the curriculum.

We aim:

- to teach children and help them to grow to the fullness of life in all its dimensions: spiritual, cultural and moral as well as intellectual and physical.
- to ensure the co-operation of all in building the school into a strong community of faith and learning in which the children are initiated into the rich heritage of their faith and taught the knowledge and skills they will need in their future lives.
- to value and acknowledge the skills and talents of all involved within our school, and to recognise and respond to the needs of our children.
- to foster a stimulating environment to promote good learning opportunities.
- to sustain a working partnership between parents, governors, parish and school.
- to encourage respect for others by treating each person in the school as of equal importance and value.
- to be aware of the needs of others so that each child may learn to live as a member of God's family world wide, in a peaceful and just multi-cultural society.

3. Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as 'classes'. These are contained in section 6 of this scheme.

The classes of information that we undertake to make available are organised into four broad topic areas:

School Prospectus – information published in the school prospectus.

Governors' Documents – governor body minutes

Pupils & Curriculum – information about policies that relate to pupils and the school curriculum.

School Policies and other information related to the school - information about policies that relate to the school in general.
